Please Note:

1. While evaluating the applications received, committee has given preference to IIC-Institutes those are active in IIC network but lagging in terms of performing the activities as per the mandates given to IICs to undertake and importantly HEIs of non-technical in nature, remote geographical locations, far from startup ecosystem etc.
2. Considering the short time period available for IIC-institutes to organize two lecture sessions with minimum 10 days gap between two sessions is required and this need to be delivered by external experts only and targeting an audience size of 200-300 numbers of students and faculties per lecture session, eligible IIC-Institutes are asked to organise two impact lecture sessions as per the guideline and expenditures cap and submit with original bills to MIC/AICTE for reimbursement. Upon receiving of claims, online disbursement of funds will be made to eligible IIC-Institutes (as disclosed in the mandate form).
3. IIC-institute are requested to report the sessions as MIC driven activity in IIC Portal.
